August 18, 2016 – Four years after the demise of former Sec. Jesse Robredo, the Department of the Interior and Local Government (DILG) family still fondly remembers him as they attended the simple 6:30 pm mass at the Mary the Queen Parish, Greenhills, San Juan City.

Unmindful of the rain and the bad weather, the personnel from the DILG Local Government sector, Philippine National Police, Bureau of Fire Protection and Bureau of Jail Management and Penology joined the family and relatives of Sec. Jesse, actors, Jesse Robredo Foundation, officials from the Department of Budget and Management, and the Senate in a solemn ceremony.

Towards the end of the mass, Sec. Jesse's and Vice President Leni's youngest daughter Jillian Therese thanked the various personalities and offices who joined their family in commemorating Sec. Jesse

"Nawalan man kami ng isang ama, lumaki naman ang aming pamilya sa tulong ninyong lahat. Maraming salamat sa inyong walang sawang pagsuporta at pag-aalala sa mga kabutihang nagawa ni Papa," Jillian stated.

Sec. Jesse Robredo has served as DILG Secretary from 2010 to 2012. The DILG personnel fondly remembers him for the "Tsinelas Leadership" and for starting the Seal of Good Housekeeping which is now called Seal of Good Local Governance.

He was on his way home to Naga City when he passed away due to a plane crash in Masbate province in 2012.

In commemoration of his death anniversary, August 18 has been declared as a special working holiday by virtue of Proclamation No. 37.
